Joint Seed Funding Research

With the goal of facilitating research cooperation in the framework of a strategic partnership, Freie Universität Berlin (FUB) and the Hebrew University of Jerusalem (HUJI) have established a joint seed funding scheme, to enable FUB and HUJI faculty and researchers to identify complementary strengths, facilitate the use of synergies, and promote the development of outstanding future research projects.

Academic Fields: The 2023-2024 call is open to collaboration of HUJI and FUB scientists in all academic fields. Applications can be either focused on one discipline or be of interdisciplinary nature. Applications from all disciplines are welcome.

Funding: The joint funding scheme aims at supporting the first steps of research collaboration (typically 5.000 - 10.000 Euro per proposal).

Type of Activity: The following formats are possible:

- Intensive research workshops
- Short term research stays (for junior as well as established researchers)
- Short intensive graduate seminars
- Mobility for the preparation of joint research proposals
- Joint doctoral supervision / mobility
- Preparation of joint publications

Location: The activities can take place in Berlin or in Jerusalem.

Participants: Participants should include ideally both senior and junior faculty/researchers (doctoral students or Post Docs) of FUB and HUJI.

Inclusion of researchers from another university or of German non-university research institutions such as Max Planck Institutes, Helmholtz Centers, Leibniz Institutes, and Fraunhofer Institutes and others, is possible, however, the additional costs must be covered by the external partners.
