

China Scholarship Council - Hebrew University of Jerusalem Scholarship Program

Application for 2019/20 is now open

1. Program Overview

This program provides scholarships for 20 selected PhD students (full degree and sandwich), postdoctoral students and visiting scholars from Chinese institutions each year, to engage in doctoral (12 – 48 months) and post-doctoral level research (12 – 24 months) at HUJI, and to host visiting scholars for academic visits of 3-12 months.

2. Fields of Cooperation

All academic fields.

3. Funding Model

The CSC will provide $900 per month for PhD students/$1000 per month for Post Doctoral Students/Visiting Scholars.

CSC will consider their application for a living allowance as prescribed from time to time by the Chinese Government (which include health insurance), a return international airfare to Israel by the most economical route, and visa application fees.

HUJI host researchers will provide a minimum of US$600 subsidy per month, PhD tuition fees and adequate working conditions in order to pursue their research, including academic supervision, necessary laboratory services, materials and library services.

4. Entry Criteria

- (1) Candidates will be citizens and permanent residents of the People's Republic of China at the time of application;
- (2) Candidates must not be currently working or studying abroad;
(This does not apply to Chinese master graduates at HUJI who want to continue their PHD studies at HUJI and to first year PHD students now studying at HUJI).
- (3) Successful candidates must return to China upon completion of their research;
- (4) Candidates must hold an unconditional offer letter from HU. They must therefore fulfill the relevant academic entry requirements set by HU, including a high level of language proficiency.
- (5) Candidates should satisfy the selection criteria set out by CSC by completing the CSC Application Form and the CSC Employer Reference Form at: <http://apply.csc.edu.cn/>.

5. Application and Selection Process 2019-20
