Supporting Service

Welcoming You to China

Arriving in a new country can be daunting. We therefore offer a free coach pick up service for new international students arriving at Shanghai Pudong Airport and Ningbo Airport during the induction period. We will also help you with the paper work required for visas, police registration, and will ensure there is a medical adviser to accompany you for mandatory health checks after you arrival in China.

Orientation Programme

A comprehensive orientation program is provided before the start of each academic semester. This aimed specifically at helping international students settle in. We take care of practical details, like opening a bank account, and ensure there is a line-up of social activities so you can meet people and make new friends.

International Student Support

Staff in Global Engagement Office and Campus Life are committed to offering guidance and support to international students from the moment you register. We can offer you expert advice on matters such as visa and immigration regulations, accommodation, life on campus and even what to pack.

Student Counseling Service

This is a confidential service available to all students of the University, run by professionally qualified counselors, for a wide range of issues including anxiety, depression, family concerns and relationship issues.

Student Disability Service

The Disability Service is the first point of contact for any student or potential student who has a disability that the University should be aware of. The service is completely confidential. A range of on course and assessment support is available once you register with the service.

Health Service

The University has a clinic which provides a 24-hour health service to help students with medical or personal problems. There are English-speaking medical adviser and nurses whose focus are international students.

Events and excursions

The Student Engagement Office runs a number of events and excursions for exchange students every semester. These include a series of festival events, company visits, as well as trips to places including traditional Chinese ancient town, Hangzhou, and other popular destinations in China.

Location: Ningbo

Ningbo is located in Zhejiang province on the south shore of Hangzhou Bay, opposite Shanghai. 7,000 years old, populated with more than six million people and covering more than 1,000 square kilometres, Ningbo is a rapidly growing city. Ranked in the top ten of cities for business in China by Forbes, it is a thriving blend of enterprise, culture, education, tradition and entertainment.

Ningbo offers the opportunity to feel at home amongst an array of international shopping outlets, restaurants, theatres, cinemas, clubs and bars, whilst hosting international sports and music events. It also provides the chance to embrace culture and tradition. Unique temples and intricate streets house an array of markets boasting a variety of antiques, textiles and delicious Ningbo cuisine. National and local festivities flaunt the delights of Chinese culture whilst close to one hundred museums and exhibitions represent the city's historic past and innovative future.

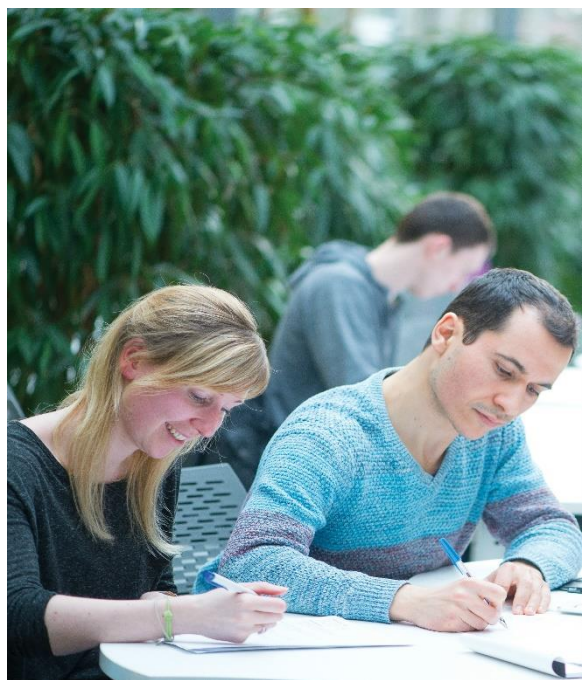

Home to the second largest port in the world, Ningbo's import and export industry is one of the most important to the city and its businesses. The city is a unique mix of modern sky-scrapers and traditional architecture, complimented with stunning parkland and scenic spots, making it a place for all.

The city's excellent transport links mean that Ningbo is an ideal location to explore and one from which to open up the vast delights that both China and Asia have to offer.
